Past Mayors of Amherstburg

Name	Years Mayor	Comments
William H. McEvoy	1889, 1890,	Born in Belleville in 1853, W.H. McEvoy came to
,,	1891, 1892, 1897	Amherstburg in 1876 to take over Robert Kay's jewellery
	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,	business and quickly became involved in the business life of his adopted community. McEvoy sold his jewellery line from the old post office store on the east side of Dalhousie Street, in the building which became known as Goldsmith's Hall. As well as being the agent for the telegraph, ferry and railway companies that serviced Amherstburg, McEvoy awarded the franchise to install the first incandescent lighting system in Amherstburg in 1894.
John Gerhard Kolfage	1878, 1881	In a close race against Michael Twomey, J.G. Kolfage was elected Amherstburg's first mayor when the town was incorporated in 1878. Kolfage had been an active participant in municipal affairs since 1851 when Amherstburg first attainted a separate municipal status.
		An immigrant from Germany, Kolfage settled in Amherstburg in 1837 at the age of 18. By trade a shoemaker, he eventually became the owner of a large tannery and a general store and hardware business.
		Kolfage also owned property on the south side of Murray street, west of Ramsay street, then in the heart of Amherstburg's business district. The devastating fire of 1875 destroyed these properties and in 1877 Kolfage erected the brick building on the southwest corner of Ramsay and Murray streets known as 'Kolfage Block' Samual McGee	1883, 1884, 1885	S. McGee was born in 1834 in Malden Township. He operated a general store in Amherstburg from 1857-1926, having taken over the business established by his father in 1828. Until his retirement at the age of 88 McGee participated actively in the community as a town councillor, reeve, justice of the peace, member of the fire department and director of the library board.
John Gallagher	1893, 1894, 1896	Born in Ireland in 1848, John G. Mullen moved from Mullen		Cleveland, Ohio in 1873 to manage the docks of the McDowell, Caul and Brett Company in Amherstburg.
		During this period a coal supplied earned substantial profits because all the steamships on the Great Lakes burned coal for fuel. Mullen proved to be a very able manager. In 1875 he bought the Amherstburg coal docks from his employers. Over the years, coal docks owned by Mullen were also established at Cleveland and Sandwich.
		John Mullen, a well-known philanthropist, remained involved in the coal business until his death in Amherstburg in 1930 deprived the community of a highly respected and well-liked citizen.

William Nattress	1950, 1951, 1952, 1953	William Nattress lived in Amherstburg all his life. He was the son of Reverend Thomas Nattress who was the minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church for many years. Nattress served in the Royal Flying Corps in World War I. He was employed as a stationary engineer at Brunner Mond where he formed a union for the engineers and was also active in union affairs when he later worked for Seagram's. Nattress had a long career in municipal government service. He was elected as town councillor four times, as deputy reeve twice and served on the Public Utilities Commission.
Michael Twomey	1879, 1882, 1886, 1887	Born in Kingston in 1825, Michael Twomey came to Amherstburg in 1865. After working briefly for distiller John McLeod, Twomey established himself as a general merchant, acquiring considerable real estate and dock property in town as his business prospered. After serving his last term as Amherstburg's mayor in 1887 Twomey moved to Windsor where he was elected mayor in 1889. He died in that city in 1911.
